AUDIO SCRIPTS
Task 1: CITY GUIDE: A TRIP TO RIVERWOOD

Guide: Hello everyone, and welcome to Riverwood! This is a beautiful, historic town. It is famous for its five old bridges over the river. Many people visit in the summer because the weather is warm and sunny.
If you like history, you should visit the City Museum. It's on Park Street, right next to the big library. It's a very interesting place.
For lunch, you must try the local food. The restaurants here make wonderful fish and chips. It's very popular!
Getting around is easy. You can buy a bus ticket for the day. A ticket is good for sixty minutes after you first use it, so you can change buses easily. I hope you have a great time in Riverwood!

TASK 2: Family's Weekend
Plans Tom: Hi Maria! How are you?

Maria: Hi Tom! I'm good, thanks. I'm thinking about the weekend. My family is very busy.
Tom: Oh really? What are they doing?
Maria: Well, my mum wants to make a big dinner for everyone. She loves cooking a big meal. My dad is going to be outside. He enjoys working in the garden when the weather is nice.

Tom: That sounds lovely. My family has plans too. I am going to the park with my friends. We're going to play football.
Maria: Fun! What about your sister, Jane?
Tom: Jane is tired. She just wants to stay at home and read a book. She loves her new book.
Maria: And your brother, Leo?

Tom: Leo wants to see the new Spider-Man movie. So, he is going to the cinema.
Maria: It sounds like everyone has a good plan

TASK 3
Dan: Hey Emma. Can you help me? I've got a special event next month but don't know what to wear. I always wear jeans and a T-shirt.
Emma: I think it's a good idea to wear something comfortable. What's the event?
Dan: It's my sister's wedding.
Emma: Your sister is getting married! Ah! Dan, that's exciting! Forget jeans and a T-shirt. You need something smart like a shirt, a jacket and trousers.
Dan: I don't want to get anything expensive, or old-fashioned.
Emma I usually buy clothes online. I'm sure we can find something smart and not very expensive.
Dan I don't like buying clothes online. When they're too tight or too baggy you need to send them back.
Emma But you need to travel to the shop, and sometimes it costs more.
Dan I really don't mind going to a shop and paying full price because I can see what the clothes look like.

Emma But you never go shopping! Well, you go shopping for video games, but never for clothes. You only get new clothes when someone in your family buys you something. Like that trendy red sweater you wear sometimes. Who gave that to you, your uncle?
Dan No, it was my sister. And it's true, I don't often go clothes shopping. That's why I need your help. Come with me and help me choose something for the wedding!
Emma You're lucky because I don't have any exams at the moment so this weekend, I'm free. Is it OK if my friend Jasmine comes with us? She likes fashion and can help you choose something trendy.
Dan: OK. What time shall we meet, at 10:00?
Emma: My dance class is from 10:00 to 11:00, so why don't we meet at 12:00 at Green Water Shopping Centre?
Dan Green water? OK, see you there!

TASK 4
Girl: Hi, Luis. Are you ready for your weekend trip with your friends? What activity are you going to do on Saturday morning — visit a museum?
Luis: That's what I usually do, isn't it! Actually, I'm seeing a friend who I met on holiday.
Girl: Great! And Stella's going with you, isn't she?
Luis: Yes. She's going to do a bus tour because it's her first time in the city. She said that's more important than concerts or shopping!
Girl: Is that what Marco's going to do — shopping?
Luis: That's his plan. He wants to go to the music shops in the area where the theatres are.
Girl: Who else is going?
Luis: Lili. She wanted to take a river trip, but it's too cold, so she's going to do a walking tour with a guide. She wants to see the museums, concert halls and other famous buildings from the outside.
Girl: And Richard?
Luis: He has a friend who's in a play, so he's going to see that.
Girl: What's Clara going to do?
Luis: There's a new art museum near the river that she's decided to go to.
Girl: Well, I hope you're all going to eat together in the evenings!

TASK 5

Daniel: Hi, Emma! How was your holiday in Italy?

Emma: It was great! I really enjoyed it.

Daniel: What did you do there?

Emma: Well, first, I visited a famous museum. It was very interesting, and I saw some beautiful paintings.

Daniel: Sounds nice. Did you go shopping?

Emma: No, I didn't. I wanted to buy some clothes, but I didn't have enough time.

Daniel: What else did you do?

Emma: I ate at a local restaurant. The food was delicious. I also visited an old church near our hotel.

Daniel: Did you go to the beach?

Emma: No, we didn't swim in the sea. But we took a boat trip on the second day. The views were amazing.

Daniel: That sounds wonderful. Did you ride a bicycle around the city?

Emma: No. We walked most of the time because the city was very busy.

Daniel: So, you had a busy holiday!

Emma: Yes, but it was a lot of fun. I'd love to go back one day.

THESE ARE ONLY SAMPLES. THE TASKS CAN VARY IN THE EXAMS.

TASK 1) Read the text and complete the table WITH NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS AND/ OR A NUMBER from the text.

THE AMAZING PANDA

[1] The giant panda is a very famous animal. It has black and white fur, so it is easy to know what it is. These animals live in the mountains in China. They live in big bamboo forests. The forests are cool and wet.

[2] A panda's food is very simple: It eats bamboo. Bamboo does not have much food energy. So, pandas need to eat a lot every day. A big panda eats for 12 hours a day. It can eat 12 to 38 kilograms of bamboo. Unlike other bears, giant pandas do not sleep all winter. They are active in the cold weather.

[3] Baby pandas are very small. When they are born, they are pink and have no fur. For a long time, there were not many pandas, and they were in danger. Today, people work hard to protect them. Now, the number of pandas is getting bigger, and they are safer. This is good news for everyone who loves them.

GIANT PANDA FACT SHEET
What colour is a panda?	1) …….
Where does it live?	2) …….
What is its main food?	3) …….
How many hours a day does it eat?	4) …….
What colour is a baby panda?	5) …….
Are pandas in danger now?	6) …….

TASK 2) Read the text again and circle T if the following statements are TRUE, and circle F if they are FALSE.

T	F	1. The giant panda lives in hot, dry forests.
T	F	2. The giant panda eats for a long time every day.
T	F	3. The giant panda sleeps during the winter.
T	F	4. Baby pandas have black and white fur when they are born.
T	F	5. People are helping to keep the giant panda safe.
T	F	6. The number of the giant panda is smaller now than in the past.

TASK 3

Read the text below and match the correct heading (A–E) to the paragraphs (1–3). There are TWO EXTRA HEADINGS you do not need.

A. Why children like sports

B. How couples meet and speak

C. Problems with travelling

D. Why is English popular globally?

E. Using a second language

Paragraph 1: ___ Paragraph 2: ___ Paragraph 3: ___

[1] People travel a lot and find jobs in different countries these days, so many people marry someone from another country. Often, they meet at work and decide to share their lives. Usually, they speak different languages, so they need a common language to communicate. For example, Annika is from Denmark and is married to Pierre from France. At home, they speak German together. In these families, the children often learn two or three languages from their parents. Annika and Pierre's children speak Danish, French, and German. However, the family also uses English, and the children use it at school. In fact, the children prefer speaking English because they say it is easy.

[2] Nowadays, millions of people speak international languages like Arabic and Spanish, but English is the most popular in the world. It is a very important language for work, study, and travel. There are about 350 million native speakers, and about 850 million people speak it as a second language. Families use it for many reasons. Some families use English because it is easier for the children to learn just one main language. Also, children hear a lot of English in their daily lives. English is the language of films, pop music, and sports like football. Children are interested in these things, so speaking English helps them understand.

[3] In these families, children can often use English well because their parents use it as a second language. Some people say that we use English too much today. However, it is difficult to tell people what language they should speak. Multicultural families are an interesting example of this in real life.

TASK 4

1. What does "they" in paragraph 1 refer to?

_____.

2. What does "their" in paragraph 3 refer to?

TASK 5

Read the text above again and complete the sentences below with NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS from the text for each answer.

1. Many people find a partner when they _____ in different countries.

2. Annika and Pierre use _____ to communicate when they are at home.

3. Children in multicultural families usually learn to speak by listening to _____.

4. The children choose to speak English because they feel it is _____.

5. Knowing English helps children understand hobbies like sports, pop music, and _____.

Speaker 1: At work, I usually send emails or talk on the phone, so when I communicate with my friends and family, I prefer talking with them face-to-face.

Speaker 2: My friends often ask me why I don't use social media, but I don't think I need to go online. I think it's faster and more convenient to use a smartphone to call us.

Speaker 3: When it comes to communication, I don't like talking on the phone or face-to-face much. I'm very shy, so I prefer sending text messages when I need to communicate.

Speaker 4: Some people say I am old-fashioned, but I think the best way to communicate is by sending letters. It's nice to read a letter from someone you care about because they took the time to write it by hand.

TASK 2: Planning to meet (Dialogue)

Sue: Hi Matt. Are you free this week?

Matt: Hi, Sue. I'm busy on Tuesday. I have to go to the dentist. My tooth is aching a lot. Why did you ask? I am free on Wednesday.

Sue: There is a new bookshop on High Street. We can visit it. But I can't meet on Wednesday. I have my piano class. What about Thursday?

Matt: The new bookshop? Yeah, I have seen it. We can go there after school on Thursday.

Sue: Well, then, on Thursday at 4 pm?

Matt: Thursday? Oh, no. Sorry, I have forgotten. It's my brother's birthday, so I will visit my parents. We will have a surprise party. Friday can be perfect. Is it OK for you?

Sue: Yeah. Good. Where do you want to meet?

Matt: How about that new café on the High Street? The one near the park.

Sue: Good idea. I hear their cakes are very good. Then we can go to the bookshop. What time?

Matt: I finish work at 5.30. Can we meet at 6.00 or 6.30 pm?

Sue: Hmm. 6.00 PM is great. See you on Friday!

Matt: See you.

TASK 3

Luis: Charlotte! I've got the computer game called Green Space.

Charlotte: Where did you find out about it, Luis?

Luis: I borrowed a magazine from a schoolfriend, and there was an ad for it. I asked my mum and she bought it for me from their website.

Charlotte: I really like that game. It's not new, but it's my favourite game because it isn't easy. I play it a lot, which is strange because it's not funny at all! Who are you going to play it with?

Luis: Well, my brother's too busy studying, and my cousin Amy only likes board games. But my granddad has lots of time, so I want to play with him. How long do you usually play it for?

Charlotte: When I was sick last Wednesday, I played for an hour and a half. Then, on Friday, for an hour. And on Saturday, three-quarters of an hour! Which part do you like best?

Luis: Crossing the river's really good, but the bit I enjoy most is finding something to eat. The part about building a hut's my least favourite.

D. Also, they are a fun and easy way to try new kinds of food.
E. This helps them be their own boss and work in different places.

FOOD TRUCKS ARE POPULAR

1. Today, in many cities, you see special trucks on the street. They are not normal trucks; they are kitchens on wheels. These are "food trucks." They sell all kinds of food, from tacos and sandwiches to ice cream and coffee. This idea is not new, but it is becoming very popular all over the world. People love them because they offer something different from normal restaurants and _____

2. Food trucks are great for customers for many reasons. First, the food is often cheaper than in a restaurant. This is because the owners do not pay for a big building. Second, it is very fast. You can get a hot, delicious meal in just a few minutes. This is perfect for busy office workers or students at lunchtime. Third, _____

3. For chefs and cooks, starting a food truck is a popular dream. A new restaurant is very expensive. It costs a lot of money to buy or rent a place. A food truck costs much less money to start. Owners can also move their trucks to different places. They can go to festivals, parks, or busy streets to find more customers. _____

4. Let's look at Maria from Miami. She was a chef in a big hotel, but she wanted to open her own business. She started "Maria's Arepas" food truck two years ago. At first, it was difficult. But now, she is very successful. She has many customers; they visit her truck every day. They love her special Venezuelan food. _____

TASK 2

PART 1 – Questions 5-8

Read the following text and match the headings (A-E) with the paragraphs. Mark the alternative (A, B, C, D, or E) on your optical answer sheet. Be careful; there is ONE EXTRA HEADING that you do not need.

A. What "Slow Food" means

B. How to join the movement

C. The start of the movement

D. A problem with modern eating

E. How the movement helps people today

THE SLOW FOOD MOVEMENT

5. _____

Around the world, life is getting faster. People work long hours, and they don't have much time to cook. Because of this, fast food restaurants are everywhere. You can buy a burger or pizza quickly and cheaply. But this lifestyle means we are losing our traditional food. We forget how to cook old recipes, and local farms close.

6. _____

In 1986, a man, Carlo Petrini, was unhappy. A new fast-food restaurant opened in a famous old square in Rome, Italy. He thought this was a big problem. He believed people had to eat good, local food and enjoy their meals with family and friends. So, he started the 'Slow Food' movement.

7. _____

What is 'Slow Food'? It is the opposite of fast food. It means choosing good, clean, and fair food. 'Good' means it is healthy and tastes delicious. 'Clean' means it is good for the environment. 'Fair' means the farmers and workers get a good price for their work.

8. _____

Today, the Slow Food movement is in over 160 countries. It organises food festivals and markets where people can buy food from local farmers. It also has programmes to teach children about food, called 'taste education'. They learn where food comes from and how to cook.

TASK 3

Read the text again, and on your optical answer sheet, mark the alternative (A, B, or C) that best answers the questions.

9. Why are people losing their traditional food?

A) They don't prefer to eat at home.

B) They don't have time to cook.

C) Supermarkets aren't cheap for shopping.

10. Why did Carlo Petrini start the Slow Food movement?

A) Because he planned to open his own restaurant.

B) Because he thought fast food was bad for the culture.

C) Because he wanted to make food more cheaply.

11. What does the Slow Food movement NOT do?

A) help local farmers sell their food

B) teach children about cooking

C) help big supermarkets find new products

12. What does 'They' refer to in the last paragraph?

A) Children

B) Farmers

C) Programmes

13. Is 'slow food' cheaper than fast food?

A) Yes

B) No

C) We don't know
